The game picks up where you left off if you leave the game. You can reset the game but haven't tried to do that and I'm not sure if that resets all levels. That function is on main menu so I imagine it does. Overall, I like the game very much and like i wrote before, some levels easy and some challenging.

To use that sixth idea, read them the clue on the first line and ask them to guess what they think the answer is. As the first clue only indicates that the answer is a city, there's a good chance that they won't guess correctly. If they don't get the correct answer after the first clue, read them the second clue and ask them to guess again.
