"Pirate" is the third book in the Hawke series, dealing with Hawke and his quest to save the world from a deadly alliance between the Chinese and French. Having read three other books in the "Hawke" series ("Spy" and the first 2), I felt this book was at best rather mediocre. It's less of this book itself, but more of the repetition in the series.

Pirate (Alexander Hawke, Book 3) by Ted Bell (9780743275071)

Ted Bell was setting up a wonderful tale with the first books in the Hawke line but this novel absolutely takes the cake. With Bells new book "Warriors" on its way, now would be a good time to pick this one up. No need to start at the beginning of the series. If time is of the essence, Pirate is the answer.
